SUBJECT No. 18.

Introduction of the Mamlatdar's Act.

(1) Mr. Lingappa, Harihar Sub-Taluk.
(2) Messrs. Madappa and Sidde Gowda, Mysore Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—(1) Amildars may be empowered to settle petty disputes between lessors and lessees of lands. By this measure great relief will be given to the public as their time and money will be saved. Only contested and important cases will go to civil courts. This Act is in force in the Bombay Presidency.

(2) The Bombay Mamlatdars Act may be introduced to enable Amildars to decide on the spot disputes as to encroachment, etc.

Reply of Government.—A committee will be appointed to investigate and advise as to the desirability of legislation on this subject.
